AN ACT Relating to Reports to Assessors of Cities, Towns and Plantations.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Persons moving from one city, town or plantation to another to report to the assessors of both. Whenever a resident of the state changes his residence from any city, town or plantation in the state to another city, town or plantation in the state, he shall report within 1 week thereafter his change of residence by mail to the clerk of the city, town or plantation that he has so changed his residence from.

Whenever a resident of this state changes his residence into another state, or whenever a resident of another state changes his residence therefrom into this state, within 1 week after such change, he shall make a report thereof by mail to the clerk of the city, town or plantation in Maine from which or to which he has so changed his residence.
