STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to the Passamaquoddy Tribe of Indians.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

P. L., 1933, c. 1, § 283, amended. Section 283 of chapter 1 of the public laws of 1933 is hereby amended to read as follows :

'Sec. 283. Forest commissioner may sell timber on Indian township; surveyor to be sworn. The forest commissioner ~~department~~ may sell to the best advantage, at public or private sale, to a citizen of the state, the timber and grass from township numbered 2 on the St. Croix river, usually called the Indian township, ~~to the amount of $1,000 annually, and may in any year sell such larger amount as the governor, with the advice and consent of his council, shall approve;~~ expressly retaining in the written contract of sale a lien on the timber and grass cut, until the amount due for stumpage thereon is paid. Every surveyor appointed by said forest commissioner ~~department~~ to scale or survey the lumber so sold, before entering on his duties, shall be sworn to the faithful performance of his trust, and shall file a certificate of his oath with the agent.'
