AN ACT Relating to Suspension of Motor Vehicle Licenses.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 29, § 97, amended. Section 97 of chapter 29 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 97. Secretary of state may suspend license or certificate of registration if judgment is unsatisfied. Upon receipt by the secretary of state of an authenticated copy of the record of the superior court, or of any municipal court in the state, showing the rendition of judgment against any person to whom has been issued a license to operate a motor vehicle, or against any person, firm or corporation in whose name has been issued a certificate of registration of such vehicle, showing that such judgment was rendered against such defendant by reason of an accident which took place subsequent to the 13th day of July, 1929, in which such vehicle was involved, together with such further proof as may be required by the secretary to satisfy him that such judgment is unsatisfied in full, he shall suspend such license or certificate of registration, or both, until such judgment is fully satisfied of record, and until such satisfaction is made, such defendant shall be ineligible to receive a license to operate or register a motor vehicle in this state. A discharge in bankruptcy shall not be deemed as a satisfaction of such judgment.'
