STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-TWO

AN ACT Relating to Ordinances of Towns Relative to Trailers and Trailer Camps.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 5, § 136, ¶ VIII, amended. Paragraph numbered VIII of section 136 of chapter 5 of the revised statutes, as amended, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

‘VIII. Relating to the design, materials of construction, construction, alteration, maintenance, repair and use of buildings and structures or parts thereof; the provision of light, ventilation and toilet facilities in new buildings and in connection with alterations of and additions to existing buildings; the installation, alteration, maintenance, repair and use of all equipment in or on or in connection with buildings or structures and relating to camps or parking facilities for trailers or house-trailers and sanitary regulations pertaining to such camps or parking facilities; duties of the inspector of buildings and issuance of permits or licenses in connection with all of the above operations; all to promote the health, safety and general welfare of the occupants and users of such buildings or structures and of the public, and for protection against catching and spreading of fires and prevention of accidents; and any building or structure or part thereof, constructed, altered, maintained, repaired or used, and any equipment therein, thereon, or in connection therewith, installed, altered, maintained, repaired or used contrary to a by-law or ordinance adopted under this authorization is a nuisance; provided it shall be the duty of the inspector of buildings to withhold permit for any of the above operations in violation of any by-law or ordinance enacted hereunder, and appeal shall lie from the decision of the inspector of buildings to the municipal officers and from said municipal officers to the superior court according to the provisions of section 20 of chapter 27; and provided further that said municipal officers shall have the power to hear and determine appeals from the refusal of such permits and to permit exceptions to or variations from the terms of such by-law or ordinance in the class of cases or situations and in accordance with the principles, conditions and procedure specified in such by-law or ordinance.
