RESOLVE, Approving the Reconveyance of Certain Land to the City of Saco.

Emergency preamble. Whereas, it is vitally necessary that cities and towns have sufficient revenue to take care of current obligations; and

Whereas, tax revenues are depleted during the present emergency; and

Whereas, the transfer of property in the following resolve will result in additional revenue to the city of Saco; and

Whereas, in the judgment of the legislature these facts create an emergency within the meaning of section 16 of Article XXXI of the constitution of Maine, and require the following legislation as immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety; now, therefore, be it

Reconveyance of certain land to city of Saco, validated. Resolved: That the deed executed by Raymond E. Rendall, forest commissioner of the state, under and by virtue of an order passed by the council and approved by the governor, on May 21, 1941, reconveying in the name of the state of Maine to the city of Saco May 26, 1941, land described in a deed of the city of Saco to the state of Maine, dated November 25, 1940, recorded in York county registry of deeds, book 951, page 406, is hereby declared legal and valid and the action of Raymond E. Rendall, forest commissioner, in the execution of the same is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved.

Emergency clause. In view of the emergency cited in the preamble, this resolve shall take effect when approved.
