AN ACT Relating to the Publication of the Maine Reports.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

R. S., c. 91, § 94, amended. Section 94 of chapter 91 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows :

‘Sec. 94. Duties. The reporter of decisions shall, ~~by his personal attendance at law court when practicable or by the best other means in his power,~~ prepare correct reports of all legal questions argued and decided, reporting cases more or less at large according to his judgment of their importance. He shall publish at least 1 volume yearly, provided he has material enough to make a volume of the size required by this section, and furnish the usual number of current copies to the state and to the public at ~~the~~ a price of $3 a volume in buckram binding and $4 a volume in leather binding to be fixed by the governor and council. Each volume shall be of the average size of ~~volume 83,~~ Maine Reports, and be equal thereto in paper, printing, general finish, and quantity of printed matter. The reporter may, from time to time, as he sees fit, make a written contract in his own name with any person, firm, or corporation for the printing, publishing, and binding of said reports and shall require such person, firm, or corporation to give a good and sufficient bond with good and sufficient sureties conditioned for the faithful performance of all the terms and conditions of such contract by the person, firm, or corporation with whom the reporter makes such contract. In case of a breach of any or all the conditions of such bond, the reporter may maintain an action on such bond in his own name.'
