STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-THREE

AN ACT Relating to the Reciprocal Enforcement of Violations of Fishing
Laws in Boundary Waters Between Maine and New Hampshire.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

R. S., c. 38, additional. Chapter 38 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered section 13, to read as follows :

‘Sec. 13. Reciprocal enforcement of violations in boundary waters. If and when the state of New Hampshire shall enact a similar law for the arrest and punishment of violations of the sea and shore fisheries laws and the inland fish and game laws of such state or the state of Maine, committed or attempted to be committed by any person or persons fishing in any waters or portion thereof lying between such state and the state of Maine, any warden or other person, who is authorized to make arrests for violations of the sea and shore fisheries laws and the inland fish and game laws of such state or the state of Maine, shall have power and authority to make arrests on any part of such waters between such state and the state of Maine or the shores thereof and to take the person or persons so arrested for trial to the state in which the violation was committed and there to prosecute such person or persons according to the laws of such state.’
