AN ACT Relating to a Retirement System for State Police.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. L., 1933, c. 1, § 233-A, amended. Section 233-A of chapter 1 of the public laws of 1933, as enacted by chapter 182 of the public laws of 1935, and amended by chapter 225 of the public laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 233-A. State police retirement system. Any member of the state police who shall have served as a member thereof for 25 years with a good record may be retired from active service and receive thereafter  $\frac{1}{2}$  of his average annual compensation over the last 10 years prior to retirement, upon request for retirement made to the chief of the state police or upon recommendation of said chief; provided that, any member who is in service on the effective date of this act shall receive the benefits of this section upon completing at least 20 years of service with a good record.’

Sec. 2. P. L., 1933, c. 1, § 233-B, repealed. Section 233-B of chapter 1 of the public laws of 1933, as enacted by chapter 182 of the public laws of 1935, is hereby repealed.
