STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-THREE

RESOLVE, Authorizing the Treasurer of State to Convey Certain Land to Fred J. Lovejoy, of West Bethel.

Treasurer of state authorized to convey certain land. Resolved: That the treasurer of state be, and hereby is, authorized to convey to Fred J. Lovejoy, of West Bethel, for the sum of $392.94 the interest of the state in certain parcels of land located in Mason Township, to wit:

‘A certain parcel of land situated in said Mason township on the southerly side of the county road leading from near the schoolhouse in said Mason township, through Tylertown, so called, to the Blanchard Cottage, so-known, and bounded as follows: northerly by said road and land by land of Ernest H. Morrill; easterly by land formerly of Solomon Westleigh and by land of said Morrill; southerly by Pleasant River; westerly by land formerly of Douglass W. Cushing and by land formerly of William W. Hastings and others. Said parcel being the same deeded to said John W. Westleigh by Mildred Hapgood Lyon by deed dated August 4, 1937, recorded in said registry.’

‘A certain parcel of land situated in said Township, with the buildings thereon, and being a part of Lot numbered 5 in range number 1, and being the Solomon Westleigh home farm as formerly owned and occupied by him, and being the same real estate named in deed of Lydia M. Westleigh, to said John W. Westleigh, dated September 10, 1930, recorded in said registry, book 399, page 611.'

STATEMENT OF FACTS

These tracts of land were sold November 28, 1939 for unpaid 1937 taxes. Mr. Lovejoy wishes to redeem this property for the sum of $392.94, which is the amount of back taxes, interest and costs.
