STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED FORTY-THREE

AN ACT Relating to Membership of Persons Employed in the Federal Employment Service in the Jointly-Contributory Retirement System for State Employees.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. L., 1941, c. 328, § 227-C, sub-§ (2), amended. Subsection (2) of section 227-C, of chapter 328 of the public laws of 1941 is hereby amended by adding thereto a new paragraph to be lettered A. and to read as follows:

‘A. Any person who was on the pay-roll as of December 31, 1941 and who was transferred to the federal employment service and any person employed by the employment service after December 31, 1941, and who subsequently may become a state employee when the so-called employment service shall be returned to the state of Maine as an operating unit, shall be considered a member of the retirement system; provided, however, that the employee designated in this paragraph shall have made payments to the state retirement fund in the same amounts and during the same periods as the other state employees have made to said fund, but the employee in the service of the federal employment service, so-called, may be permitted to make up any amounts due to the retirement fund if this is done within 1 year of the date when the so-called employment service is returned to the state of Maine, but any employee of the federal employment service who has not paid the contributions shall not be entitled to the benefits of this chapter. Any employee to whom this act is applicable shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits which he would have accrued had he been employed by the state of Maine.'
