ROYDEN V. BROWN, Secretary.

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED FORTY-THREE

AN ACT Amending the Charter of the City of Lewiston.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. III, § 1, amended. Section 1 of Article III of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 1. Nomination by petition. The nomination of all candidates for elective offices shall be by petition and without party designation. The petition of a candidate for mayor shall be signed by not less than 200 nor more than 400 qualified voters of the city. The petition of a candidate for alderman shall be signed by not less than 100 nor more than 200 qualified voters of the ward wherein the candidate is to be elected. The petition of a candidate for warden or ward clerk shall be signed by not less than 25 nor more than 50 qualified voters of the ward wherein the candidate is to be elected. No voter shall sign petitions for more than 1 candidate for each office and should any voter sign more than 1 such petition, his signature shall be counted only upon the 1st petition filed and shall be held void upon all other petitions.'

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. IV, § 2, amended. Section 2 of Article IV of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 2. Term and salary. The term of office of the mayor shall be 1 year or until his successor shall have been elected and qualified. No person shall be eligible to the office of mayor for more than 2 terms in succession. The salary of the mayor shall be $1500 for the term which shall be in full for the performance of his official duties.'

Sec. 3. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. V, § 1, amended. Section 1 of Article V of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 1. President of council. The city council shall, as early in the term as may be, by ballot elect 1 of their number to be its president whose duties shall be to preside in the absence of the mayor and who in the event of a vacancy in the office of mayor shall perform the duties of that office until a mayor shall have been elected and qualified, save that he shall make no appointments which by the terms of this charter the mayor may be required to make; and while so acting he shall be entitled to the same pay that the mayor would have received, but he shall not be entitled to both the salary of mayor and the compensation of an alderman.'

Sec. 4. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. VI, § 10, amended. Section 10 of Article VI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 10. Salary. The salary of the city clerk shall be set by the board of finance and he shall receive no other compensation or emoluments for the performance of his official duties except fees paid by the state.'

Sec. 5. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. VII, § 5, amended. Section 5 of Article VII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 5. Salary. The salary of the corporation counsel shall be set by the board of finance.'

Sec. 6. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. X, § 4, amended. Section 4 of Article X of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 4. Employees. The board shall have full power and authority to employ such superintendents, engineers, inspectors, foremen, agents, and employees as may be required for the administration of the affairs of the department, prescribe their duties, set their compensation subject to the approval of the board of finance, and terminate their employment at pleasure.'

Sec. 7. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XI, § 11, amended. Section 11 of Article XI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, as amended by chapter 45 of the private and special laws of 1941, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 11. Police matron. A police matron shall be appointed by the commission and hold such office until retired or removed as provided for by law, and whose duties and powers in general shall be similar to that of a patrolman. She shall be entitled to a vacation of 2 weeks in each calendar year at such time as may be appointed by the chief of police, with pay. The salary of said police matron shall be fixed at \$1400 per annum payable in equal weekly installments by the city treasurer. After having served as police matron or in a similar capacity, when her aggregate term of service shall equal 25 years or who while in the performance of duty in the department has become permanently disabled, upon her petition, she shall be retired and thereupon shall be entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the pay she was receiving at the time of her retirement or permanent disability.'

Sec. 8. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XI, § 21, amended. Section 21 of Article XI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 21. Retirement; permanent disability. Any member of the Lewiston police department who shall have arrived at the age of 65 years in active service, or any member who while in the performance of duty has become permanently disabled, or any police officer of the city who was a member of the police department at the time of the enactment of chapter 37 of the private and special laws of 1917 and who thereafterwards, but prior to the enactment of chapter 8 of private and special laws of 1939, arrived at the age of 65 years, while in active service, shall be retired and shall be entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the pay which such member received at the time of his retirement or permanent disability.'

Sec. 9. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XI, § 22, amended. Section 22 of Article XI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 22. Pensions, application for. When application is made for pension because of permanent disability while in active service, the applicant shall satisfy the commission that he is permanently disabled and that his disability was incurred in the discharge of his duties as a member of the department.'

Sec. 10. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XI, § 24, amended. Section 24 of Article XI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following is enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 24. Payment of pensions. The pensions specified in this charter shall be paid monthly by the city treasurer and no pension shall be allowed unless application therefor shall have been approved by the commission.’

Sec. 11. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XI, § 25, amended. Section 25 of Article XI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 25. Petition for retirement. Any member of the police department who has served not less than 25 years, shall be retired on his petition, and thereupon become entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the pay which such member received at the time of his retirement.’

Sec. 12. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XI, additional. Article XI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be designated as ‘Section 26’ and to read as follows:

‘Sec. 26. Pension provisions for chief of police. The chief of police shall be entitled to the benefits of this and the 5 preceding sections only (1) for permanent disability incurred in the performance of some duty devolving upon him as a member of the department.’

Sec. 13. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XI, § 26, renumbered. Section 26 of Article XI of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, formerly known as “Section 26” shall hereafterward be designated as ‘Section 27’ of said Article.

Sec. 14. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 3, amended. Section 3 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 3. Permanent membership. All members of the department designated as permanent members when this chapter was enacted shall continue as such, and the commission may require a period of trial service of not less than 6 months of any applicant for permanent membership before enrolling him upon the list of permanent members. After 1 year of service all those qualified as permanent members shall be entitled to 2 weeks’ vacation each year with pay at such time as may be prescribed by the commission.’

Sec. 15. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 4, amended. Section 4 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 4. Officers; inspector of buildings; inspector of wiring. The commission may employ a chief engineer, a superintendent of fire alarm, such assistant engineers and such other officers, members and employees of the department as they shall deem necessary, shall direct their organization, prescribe their duties, set their compensation subject to the approval of the board of finance, and terminate their employment at pleasure; save that permanent members of the department shall not be removed unless for inefficiency or other cause detrimental to the service of the department and after hearing. They may also appoint an inspector of buildings, an inspector of electric wiring, equipment and appliances, and such clerks and assistants to these officials as they may deem necessary, prescribe their duties, set their compensation subject to the approval of the board of finance, and terminate their employment at pleasure. They may designate any member of the department as defined in the first sentence of this section to perform any of the duties provided for in the second sentence, and any member so designated shall lose none of his rights as a member of the department.’

Sec. 16. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 9, amended. Section 9 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 9. Retirement age. Any member of the fire department who shall have arrived at the age of 65 years in active service and who shall have served not less than 25 years shall be retired and shall be entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the pay which such member received at the time of his retirement. The commission may retain the services of any member of the department who has reached the age of retirement, from year to year, if he consents, while they deem it for the best interests of the department. In such cases he shall be entitled to his pension from the date of actual retirement.’

Sec. 17. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 10, amended. Section 10 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 10. Pension for retirement. Any member of the department who shall have served not less than 25 years shall be retired upon his petition, and thereupon shall be entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the pay which such member received at the time of his retirement.’

Sec. 18. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 11, amended. Section 11 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 11. Qualifications of permanent members for pensions. Any permanent member of the fire department who has become permanently disabled while in the actual performance of duty in the department shall be entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the pay which such member received at the time of his permanent disability.'

Sec. 19. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 12, amended. Section 12 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 12. Qualifications of call members for pensions. Any call member of the fire department who has become permanently disabled while in the actual performance of duty in the department shall be entitled to a pension equal to $\frac{1}{2}$ of the lowest salary then paid to any permanent member of the fire department, but not less than \$25 a month.'

Sec. 20. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 13, amended. Section 13 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 13. Payment of pensions. The pensions hereinbefore specified shall be paid monthly by the city treasurer and no pension shall be allowed unless application therefor shall have been approved by the fire commission.'

Sec. 21. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 14, amended. Section 14 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 14. Pensions, application for. When application is made for pension because of permanent disability incurred while in the performance of duty in the department, the applicant shall satisfy the fire commission that he is permanently disabled and that his disability was incurred in the discharge of his duties as a member of the department.'

Sec. 22. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XII, § 15, amended. Section 15 of Article XII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 15. Granting of pensions. The fire commission shall investigate and pass upon all matters pertaining to the pensions of firemen, in accordance with the provisions of this charter, and shall have authority to grant such pensions as provided herein.'

Sec. 23. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XIII, § 3, amended. Section 3 of Article XIII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

'They shall have control and management of the armory as a building devoted to educational purposes while it is used for educational or recreational purposes, and while so used they shall be charged with the repairs and maintenance thereof; provided that this act shall not be construed to interfere with or prevent its use at any time for military purposes. Bookings for the use of the armory for public purposes shall be made in such manner and at such rates as the board of finance shall from time to time order.'

Sec. 24. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XIII, § 4, amended. Section 4 of Article XIII of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 4. Officers, agents and employees. They may employ a superintendent of schools and such janitors, truant officers, directors of recreational activities and other agents and employees as they may deem necessary, prescribe their duties, set their compensation subject to the approval of the board of finance, and terminate their employment at pleasure.'

Sec. 25. P. & S. L., 1939, c. 8, Art. XIV, § 5, amended. Section 5 of Article XIV of chapter 8 of the private and special laws of 1939, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 5. City physician. They may employ a city physician, prescribe his duties, set his compensation subject to the approval of the board of finance, and terminate his employment at pleasure.'
