STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-FIVE

RESOLVE, in Favor of the Town of Charleston.

Town of Charleston; compensated. Resolved: That the Farm Lands Loan Commission of Maine be, and hereby is, authorized to pay to the town of Charleston the sum of $200 to reimburse said town for cost of conveyance of children to school.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

Since 1931, property was taken over by the Farm Lands Loan Commission of Maine in the town of Charleston. From 1931 to 1939 the town of Charleston had to convey children from this property to school, under the law, at an extra expense as no other children were located in that territory.
