STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-FIVE

AN ACT Relating to the Capitol Island Village Corporation.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

P. & S. L., 1913, c. 87, § 11, repealed and replaced. Section 11 of chapter 87 of the private and special laws of 1913 is hereby repealed and replaced to read as follows :

‘Sec. 11. Who may vote at meetings of corporation; overseers shall determine who are legal voters. All persons residing within the limits of said corporation who would be legal voters in the town of Southport, and every person of lawful age who is in possession of one or more lots of land on said island, shall be legal voters at any meeting of said corporation at which they are present. The overseers of said corporation shall determine who are the legal voters at any meeting and shall prepare a list of said voters at least 24 hours before each meeting, which said list they may amend or correct at any time before said meeting or during its progress. The vote upon any proposition at any meeting shall be taken and checked by this list upon the demand of 5 legal voters. Provided, however, that every person who by virtue of joint ownership of himself and some other person is in possession of a certain aliquot part of a lot of land on said island upon which he has a dwelling house owned and controlled by himself exclusively, shall be deemed a legal voter at any meeting of the corporation at which he is present; but no person shall be entitled to more than 1 vote at any meeting either for himself or as representing the joint owners of any lot of land.'
