STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-FIVE

RESOLVE, Providing for an Interim Commission to Study Methods to Assure Greater Productivity of the Forest Lands of the State.

Interim commission; appointment. Resolved: That the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, is hereby authorized and directed to appoint 9 competent persons to constitute a commission for the study and analysis of measures to assure greater productivity of forest growth in the state, and such study shall give consideration to the effect of taxation upon the conservation of the state's timberland resources.

The commission may request the state forest commissioner and the state tax assessor to advise and assist it in securing basic data that may be required for its study.

The members of said commission shall serve without salary or other remuneration.

Said commission shall make a report of its studies, with any legislation it deems necessary, to the 93rd legislature.
