STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-SEVEN

AN ACT Relating to Bounty on Foxes.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 33, § 102, additional. Section 102 of chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 102-A and to read as follows:

'Sec. 102-A. Bounty on foxes. There shall be a bounty of $5 for every fox which is killed in B, C, and D townships and in the towns of Monticello, Littleton, and Bridgewater in the county of Aroostook paid to the person killing the same by the treasurer of the organized township or plantation in which said fox was killed. These bounties shall be paid by the treasurers of said towns or plantations.

No bounty shall be paid unless claimant within 72 hours after he has killed such animal exhibits to the town treasurer the entire skin thereof or the entire animal for the killing of which such bounty is claimed, and sign a certificate under oath, which said treasurer may administer stating that he killed such animal and the time and place within the state. Such certificate must be approved by and bear the signature of the fish and game warden or warden supervisor in whose district the animal was killed stating that he believes the fox to have been killed at the time and place stated therein. The skin of all foxes on which bounty is claimed must be marked and sealed by the warden or warden supervisor in whose district the same was killed, with implements provided by the commissioner. The town treasurer shall then pay the bounty and take the claimant's receipt therefor upon the same paper with such certificates and the town treasurer shall make upon the same paper, at the time of his monthly report, a certificate under oath addressed to the commissioner of inland fisheries and game, that all the requirements of law have been met by the claimant and that the bounty has been paid to him.

The certificate shall be in the following form:
