STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-SEVEN

AN ACT Providing for Registration of Bear Killed.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 33, § 92, additional. Chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 92-A, to read as follows:

'Sec. 92-A. Registration stations for bear killed. The commissioner shall establish registration stations for the purpose of registering all bear killed. Town clerks shall be the agents designated by the commissioner to register bear except that additional agents may be designated wherever necessary. Said agent shall register each and every bear presented for registration and shall tag each bear in the manner as directed and with the materials furnished by the commissioner. Each registration tag shall be at least 3 inches by 6 inches in size, and each tag shall bear the words "This bear was killed in Maine" in as large size lettering as the tag will carry. A fee of 25c shall be paid by the individual registering the bear to the registration agent. No person shall transport any bear beyond the town in which it was killed unless that bear shall have been registered and shall have attached thereto a registration tag. No person shall have in possession or shall keep at any place any bear which has not been registered.'
