AN ACT Relating to the Maine Port Authority, Formerly Called the Port of Portland Authority.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1929, c. 114, § 2, amended. The 1st paragraph of section 2 of chapter 114 of the private and special laws of 1929 is hereby amended to read as follows:

~~‘The Port Authority shall consist of a board of 5 directors who shall be in the first instance the directors of the Port of Portland appointed and serving under the provisions of chapter eighty-four of the private and special laws of nineteen hundred and nineteen as amended at the time this act takes effect and their terms shall be for the period of their unexpired terms as such directors of the Port of Portland. Thereafter the directors shall be appointed four by the governor, with advice and consent of the council, and one by the city council of the city of Portland, as follows, at~~ At the expiration of the term of any member ~~appointed by the governor~~ the governor shall appoint 1 member to serve for 3 years and ~~at the expiration of the term of the member appointed by the city council, the city council shall appoint a member to serve for three years.~~

Any vacancy occurring among the directors shall be filled for the unexpired term by the governor ~~or by the city council, according as the vacancy occurs among the members originally appointed by the governor or by the city council respectively.~~ In all cases a member shall continue to serve until a successor is appointed and qualified. The directors shall elect from their own number a president and may also elect a treasurer and such other officers as the board of directors may from time to time deem necessary or advisable and who need not be directors.'
