AN ACT Providing Appeal from Decision of Court Setting Aside a Jury Verdict.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 100, § 60, amended. The 3rd paragraph of section 60 of chapter 100 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'If such decision is unfavorable to the moving party, no judgment shall be entered in the action until the expiration of 10 days thereafter, during which period such moving party may file another motion to have the verdict set aside as against the law or evidence as provided in section 59, without prejudice by reason of the denial of the previous motion by the presiding justice, and all proceedings thereon shall be in accordance with the provisions of said section 59. If the aforesaid motion to the presiding justice is allowed, the party aggrieved thereby may file exception to the allowance of said motion in the same manner as provided in section 14 of chapter 94, except that if the motion is granted in term time, said bill of exceptions shall be filed within 30 days after said term at which said motion is allowed has finally adjourned; and if said motion is allowed in vacation, then said bill of exceptions shall be filed within 30 days after the order allowing said motion shall have been filed with the clerk of courts in the county where the action is pending.'
