RESOLVE, Authorizing the George Green Estate to Sue the State of Maine.

George Green Estate given right to sue state. Resolved: That the George Green Estate, the owner of real estate located at South Thomaston, Maine, which has been damaged by the destruction of a dam through the building of a bridge at Wessaweskeag river, South Thomaston, by the state highway commission, be, and hereby is, authorized to bring a suit at law in the superior court for the county of Knox within 1 year from the 1st day of January, 1948, at any term thereof, against the state of Maine, and the writ issuing out of said superior court under the authority of this resolve shall be served on the secretary of state by attested copy 30 days before the return day thereof by the sheriff or either of his deputies of any county of the state of Maine, and the conduct of said suit shall be according to the practice of suits and proceedings between parties and suitors in said superior court, and the liabilities of the parties shall be the same as the liabilities between individuals, and the attorney-general is hereby authorized and designated to appear and answer to said suit to recover the damages sustained by the said George Green Estate, by reason of the damage to its real property, and any judgment that may be recovered in such suit at law shall be payable from the treasury of the state of Maine on final process issued by said court in said suit at law out of any money not otherwise appropriated and costs may be taxed for the said George Green Estate if it recovers in said suit.
