STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-NINE

AN ACT Relating to Permits to Cut Logs.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 106, § 8, amended. The 1st sentence of section 8 of chapter 106 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'No agreement, that personal property bargained and delivered to another shall remain the property of the seller till paid for, is valid unless the same is in writing and signed by the person to be bound thereby; and when so made and signed, whether said agreement is, or is called a note, lease, conditional sale, purchase on instalments, permit to cut logs, or by any other name, and in whatever form it may be, it shall not be valid, except as between the original parties thereto, unless it is recorded in the office of the clerk of the city, town or plantation organized for any purpose, in which the purchaser resides at the time of the purchase; but if any of the purchasers are not residents of the state, or reside in an unorganized place in the state, then in the registry of deeds in the county where the seller resides at the time of the sale.'
