STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FORTY-NINE

AN ACT Relative to Bounty on Foxes, in the County of Aroostook.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 33, § 101-A, additional. Chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 101-A, to read as follows:

‘Sec. 101-A. Bounty on foxes. For 2 years there shall be a bounty of $3 for every fox which is killed in the county of Aroostook, to be paid by the treasurer of state to the person killing the same upon compliance with the following conditions. No bounty shall be paid unless the claimant, within 10 days after he has killed such animal, exhibits to the warden in whose district the animal was killed the entire carcass thereof, in as perfect a state as when killed, except natural decay, with the skin removed, and signs a certificate under oath stating that he killed such animal and the time and place within the state. The warden shall thereupon cut off the whole of the head and destroy the same. If the warden is satisfied that the fox was killed in his district or division he shall approve the claimant’s certificate and forward same to the commissioner in the following form:

Claimant’s Certificate

To the Commissioner of Inland Fisheries and Game:

I hereby certify that on the day of A. D.,
19.... at in the county of Aroostook, I killed the fox,

the carcass of which I now exhibit to you, and I claim the bounty allowed by law for killing the same.

Dated at this day of A. D., 19....
..... Claimant

P. O. address of claimant

It is believed that the fox was killed at the time and place stated herein, and I hereby certify that I have this day destroyed the head removed therefrom.

This day of

Game Warden

INLAND FISH AND GAME COMMISSION

Augusta, Maine, 19....

I hereby certify that I have received from, Game Warden, the foregoing certificate.

.....
For Inland Fish and Game Commissioner

Claim for bounty must be made within 10 days after the killing of the animal.

Upon receipt by the state controller of a certificate from the commissioner showing that said commissioner has received the certificate, from the warden sent as aforesaid, said controller shall audit the claim for bounty and the same shall be paid forthwith by the treasurer of state.'
