AN ACT Permitting Continuance of Service of State Employees Reaching Seventy Years of Age.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 60, § 6-A, sub-§ I, ¶ B, amended. Paragraph B of subsection I of section 6-A of chapter 60 of the revised statutes, as revised by section 3 of chapter 384 of the public laws of 1947, is hereby amended to read as follows:

'B. Any member in service who attains age 70 shall be retired forthwith on a service retirement allowance or on the 1st day of the next calendar month; except that any member who is an elected official of the state or an official appointed for a term of years may remain in service until the end of the term of his office for which he was elected or appointed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, on the request of the governor with the approval of the council, the board of trustees ~~may~~ shall permit the continuation for periods of 1 year, as the result of each such request, of the service of any employee who has attained the age of 70 and who desires to remain in service.'
