STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Conveyance of School Children.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 37, § 8, amended. The 2nd sentence of section 8 of chapter 37 of the revised statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'The superintendent of schools in each town shall procure the conveyance of all elementary school pupils residing in his town, a part or the whole of the distance, to and from the nearest suitable school, for the number of weeks for which schools are maintained in each year, when such pupils reside at such a distance from the said school or where such other conditions exist as in the judgment of the superintending school committee shall render such conveyance necessary; provided, however, that if any parent or person having custody of a pupil or pupils is aggrieved by any decision of said committee with reference to conveyance of said pupils, he may appeal such decision to the state department of education. Said department shall, after hearing and determining all the facts, render a decision which shall be binding upon the parties.'
