STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Oil Burning and Liquefied Gas Equipment.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 85, § 42-C, additional. Chapter 85 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section, to be numbered 42-C, to read as follows:

'Sec. 42-C. Oil burning and liquefied gas equipment; license; penalty. No person, firm or corporation shall install any oil burning or liquefied gas equipment utilized for heating or cooking without first applying to the insurance commissioner for a license to so install. If the insurance commissioner is satisfied that such person, firm or corporation is competent, a license shall be issued. The license fee shall be $10 for each calendar year and shall be paid to the treasurer of state and credited to the insurance commissioner to carry out the provisions of this section.

The commissioner is authorized to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

Whoever violates the provisions of this section or any rule or regulation promulgated hereunder shall be punished by a fine of not less than $20, nor more than $100, for each offense; all such equipment may be seized by any peace officer and forfeited; and within 20 days after such seizure may be libeled according to law.'
