STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-ONE

AN ACT Relating to Swan Island Game Preserve.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 33, § 128, amended. That part of section 128 of chapter 33 of the revised statutes, as revised, which relates to Swan Island Game Preserve, is hereby amended to read as follows:

‘Swan Island Game Preserve, Game Farm, and Game Management Area: It shall be unlawful to hunt, chase, trap, kill or pursue any wild animals or birds above high water mark within the following described tract or territory situated in the county of Sagadahoc, to wit: The islands in the Kennebec river, near Richmond, known as Swan island and Little Swan island (formerly known as Alexander islands). ~~It shall also be unlawful to hunt, chase, trap, kill, or pursue any wild animals or birds within any area indicated by red boundary markers located on tidal flats, beginning at a red marker at Theobald Point, so called, on the southwest shore of Swan island running southerly and easterly around the south end of the island and northerly on the east side of said island to a red marker on the north point of Wade’s boathouse cove, no markers to be more than 50 yards from high water mark except that they may be placed to low water mark~~

~~in Maxwell's Cove, so called.~~ It shall also be unlawful to have in possession any firearms, traps or other devices for the taking of wild animals or birds on the above islands, except that the department of inland fisheries and game may at any time take any wild animals or birds from this area for propagation within the state or for scientific purposes.'
