STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-ONE

AN ACT Closing Certain Clam Flats in Lubec, Washington County.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 34, § 62-C, additional. Chapter 34 of the revised statutes, as revised, is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to be numbered 62-C, to read as follows:

‘Sec. 62-C. Certain clam flats in Lubec closed; penalty. No clams shall be taken from the flats of Lubec, Washington county, from November 1, 1951 to October 31, 1952, both days inclusive, within the following limits: Magnetic North from a red painted post driven in the northernmost point of northernmost bank of Robinson Head, so called, to low water mark; thence in a general northerly direction to the northernmost point of Seward Neck, thence in a general southerly direction along low water mark to a line 55 degrees magnetic from a red painted post driven in the bank on the easterly end of Hannah Miller point, so called. It is intended to include all the clam flats bordering on Seward Neck, the Canal Area, so called, and that part of Johnson’s Bay lying north of the line from Hannah Miller point, so called, mentioned above, in the town of Lubec.

All other flats within the limits of the town of Lubec shall be open to the digging of clams to and including October 31, 1952.

The flats described in the 1st paragraph shall be open to dig clams November 1, 1952 and the flats described in the 2nd paragraph shall be closed November 1, 1952. Both described flats shall be opened and closed alternately from year to year. It is not intended to interfere with clam flats already closed by law, within the limits of the town of Lubec.

Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall for each offense be punished by a fine of not less than $10, nor more than $100, or by imprisonment for not more than 60 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.'
