STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-ONE

AN ACT Relative to Itinerant Photographers.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. R. S., c. 88, § 99-A, amended. Section 99-A of chapter 88 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 3 of chapter 434 of the public laws of 1949, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following sentence:

‘The words “regularly established place of business” are herein defined to mean a place of business open to the public at least 5 days a week for not less than 6 hours daily and having one or more persons in charge thereof.’

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 88, § 99-C, repealed and replaced. Section 99-C of chapter 88 of the revised statutes, as enacted by section 3 of chapter 434 of the public laws of 1949, is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

‘Sec. 99-C. Application. Application for an itinerant photographer’s license shall be made in writing to the secretary of state upon blanks prepared by him for that purpose. In case of persons, the application shall contain the name, age, residence and address, and the name and address of the principal place of business of his employer or principal. In case of corporations, the application shall contain the name, address of principal place of business, names of the officers, and further shall state that it does not have a regularly established business within the state. The license fee shall be paid when the application is filed. Upon complaint of any person to the secretary of state that any other person, firm or corporation is in the business of photography without having a regularly established place of business within the state, the secretary of state shall make inquiry and the person, firm or corporation complained of shall forthwith notify the secretary of state as to the location of the claimed regularly established place of business.'
