HARVEY R. PEASE, Clerk

STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-ONE

RESOLVE, Granting a Pension to James E. Harvey, of Readfield.

James E. Harvey; pension for. Resolved: That James E. Harvey, of Readfield, be granted a retirement benefit comparable to that allowed a member of the Maine State Retirement System having at least 13 years of "prior service" and a total of at least 20 years service at age 70 or thereafter, to be paid from the funds of the said Maine State Retirement System. No part of this retirement benefit shall be payable unless the said James E. Harvey shall contribute to the Maine State Retirement System the sum of $448.53.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

James E. Harvey has served the Maine Legislature for some 25 years as Document Clerk, having been first appointed to that position in 1925. Coincidental with this service, in part at least, he has served as a seasonal inspector with the State Department of Agriculture since 1937. On the effective date of the State Retirement Law in 1942 Mr. Harvey had already reached the compulsory retirement age of 70 but, due to his ability to keep on performing the duties of both jobs, has been retained in service ever since. Mr. Harvey is presently 81 years of age.
