STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-ONE

RESOLVE, to Reimburse Robert Ballard, of Hallowell.

Robert Ballard, compensated. Resolved: That the sum of $512.30 is hereby appropriated to be paid to Robert Ballard, of Hallowell, in full and final settlement of his claim against the state for damage to his tractor.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

In an exchange of work, the tractor belonging to Robert Ballard, of Hallowell, was borrowed by the state school for girls to haul corn stalks from the field to their barn on Winthrop hill. Their driver failed to make their driveway and the tractor, hauling their trailer loaded with corn stalks, went down the hill. The state trailer hit a number of cars and trucks parked at the Worster hotel and the Ballard tractor was damaged to the extent that they have not had the use of it since last September. The repair bills on it will amount to about $600.
