STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-THREE

AN ACT Amending the Maine Employment Security Law as to Benefit Eligibility Conditions.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine as follows:

R. S., c. 24, § 14, sub-§ III, amended. Subsection III of section 14 of chapter 24 of the revised statutes, as repealed and replaced by section 1 of chapter 430 of the public laws of 1949, is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following:

‘and, provided further, that a female claimant shall be ineligible to receive benefits, or waiting period credit, for any week wholly or partly within the 8 weeks immediately prior to the expected date of such individual’s giving birth to a child and within the 4 weeks after the actual date of birth of her child; provided further, that no such claimant who becomes separated from work voluntarily or involuntarily because of pregnancy, shall be eligible for benefits, or waiting period credit, for any week within the period from such separation until 4 weeks after the actual date of birth of her child, and shall be eligible for benefits thereafter only for such weeks with respect to which the commission finds that she has met and complied with all other eligibility conditions of this section.’
