AN ACT Relating to the Taking of Clams, Quahogs, Mussels and Worms in the Town of Islesboro.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

P. & S. L., 1949, c. 126, amended. The 1st paragraph of chapter 126 of the private and special laws of 1949 is hereby amended to read as follows :

'It shall be unlawful for any person to dig any clams, quahogs, mussels or worms within the limits of the town of Islesboro, in the county of Waldo, except a resident of said town. Provided further, that no such resident shall dig more than  $\frac{1}{2}$  bushel of clams, quahogs or mussels in any 1 day within said town, without first having procured therefor a written license, which the selectmen are hereby authorized to issue upon payment of a fee of \$2. Licenses issued under authority hereof shall expire at midnight of December 31st of the calendar year in which they were issued. ~~Nothing herein shall prohibit hotel keepers from taking clams, quahogs or mussels for the use of their hotels nor fishermen from taking shellfish for bait nor any person from digging not in excess of  $\frac{1}{2}$  bushel in any 1 day for his own use nor any riparian owner from digging on his own property.~~
