STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-THREE

AN ACT Relating to Licenses for Buying and Selling Poultry.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

R. S., c. 27, § 116, amended. The 1st sentence of section 116 of chapter 27 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof :

No person shall engage in the business of buying or selling live poultry in this state the meat or product of which is to be sold or used for food unless he has a license from the commissioner of agriculture. Licenses shall be issued in 2 forms:

I. An unlimited license to each person who shall furnish a bond with sufficient surety in an amount to be determined by the commissioner, but not to exceed $10,000, payable to the state of Maine and conditioned for the faithful performance of all legal obligations incurred in the buying and selling of live poultry the meat or product of which is to be sold or used for food; such bond shall be held by the commissioner to satisfy any court judgment obtained or execution issued against any licensee because of failure to perform such legal obligation; and

II. A limited license which shall permit the licensee to do business on a United States currency basis only. Applications for licenses herein provided shall be made in such manner and upon such forms as the commissioner of agriculture shall prescribe.'
