AN ACT Relating to Salary of Judge and Fees Paid to Waterville
Municipal Court.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

Sec. 1. P. & S. L., 1897, c. 325, § 3, amended. Section 3 of chapter 325 of the private and special laws of 1897, as amended by chapter 98 of the private and special laws of 1949, is hereby further amended to read as follows :

'Sec. 3. Judge, salary; clerical assistance. Said court shall consist of 1 judge, to be appointed in the manner and for the term provided by the constitution, who shall be a member of the bar in Kennebec county, who shall reside during his continuance in office in said city of Waterville, and who shall receive from ~~said city~~ the county of Kennebec, in monthly payments, an annual salary of ~~$2,400~~ $2,500, which shall be in full for all fees pertaining to his office; ~~provided, however, that he shall receive in addition to said salary all fees allowed by law in matters relating to civil business~~; and he shall have the authority to employ such clerical assistance as is necessary, and the city shall pay therefor ~~in the same manner as the salary of the judge is paid.~~'

Sec. 2. P. & S. L., 1897, c. 325, § 13, repealed and replaced. Section 13 of chapter 325 of the private and special laws of 1897 is hereby repealed and the following enacted in place thereof:

'Sec. 13. Disposition of court fees; the term fees defined. All fees for criminal cases shall be allowed and taxed as in behalf of trial justices and shall be paid to the county of Kennebec. The word fees as used in this section includes all fees fixed by law in criminal cases including fees for copies. All fees paid to and received by such judge in civil cases shall be paid semi-annually into the treasury of the city of Waterville. All blanks for criminal cases used by such court shall be furnished by the county, and all blanks for civil cases used by said court shall be furnished by the city of Waterville.'
