STATE OF MAINE
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
97th LEGISLATURE

HOUSE AMENDMENT "B" to S. P. 93, L. D. 223, Bill, "An Act Relating to Installations Within Highway Limits."

Amend said Bill by striking out all after the enacting clause and inserting in place thereof the following:

"R. S., c. 23, §. 89, amended. The first paragraph of Section 89 of chapter 23 of the revised statutes is hereby repealed and replaced to read as follows:

'No person shall install, erect or construct, or cause to be installed, erected or constructed any such installations as buildings, gasoline pumps or other fixtures, excepting only the installations or other property devoted to the public use of any public utility or district or to underground pipe lines, in, upon or near any state or state aid highway, located as follows:

- I. Within the full width of the right of way of a state or state aid highway as laid out by the State, the county or the town or within 33 feet of the center line of said highway. This provision shall not apply to installations or other property in existence on August 6, 1949; or
- II. Within the full width of the right of way of a state or state aid highway as laid out by the State, the county or town, or within 20 feet from the outside edge of the paved portion of any state or state aid highway having more than 2 travel lanes and having a total paved portion in excess of 24 feet in width. This provision shall not apply to installations or other property in existence on September 1, 1955.'

Filed by Mr. Pullen of Oakland.

Reproduced and distributed under direction of the Clerk of the House.
