AN ACT to Incorporate Associated Industries of Maine.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Corporators. John L. Baxter, Jr., Bernard F. Brady, Daniel E. Connelly, John F. Cooke, Henry W. Fales, Earl B. Foss, Lynwood S. Hatch, Harold H. Holden, Philip W. Hussey, Thomas G. Mangan, J. C. McCall, Millard S. Peabody, J. M. Pomeroy, Fred C. Scribner, Jr., J. William Schulze, Gerald L. Vaughan, Elmer L. Ward, Roy V. Weldon, J. Hollis Wyman, Wallace E. Parsons, Theodore F. Spear, Clarence L. Philbrick, and all persons who may hereafter become associated with them, are hereby created a corporation by the name of Associated Industries of Maine, for the purpose of improving the manufacturing conditions of the industries of Maine in the public interest; to inculcate just and equitable principles among its members, and between its members and their employees; to acquire, possess, and disseminate useful information for its members, and generally to promote the welfare of its members and their employees and the prosperity of the State of Maine and its industries; and by that name shall have power to sue and be sued, and possess all the rights and privileges of corporations under the laws of this state.

Sec. 2. Officers; by-laws, etc. Said corporation may elect such officers as it may deem necessary, and may adopt such constitution, by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of this state, as it may deem proper, for the management of its affairs, including the admission, government and expulsion of members.

Sec. 3. First meeting. The first meeting of the corporation may be called by any one of the persons named in this act, by mailing, postage prepaid, notice of the time and place of such meeting to each of the persons so named, at least one week prior to such meeting.
