STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-FIVE

AN ACT to Incorporate Maine Oil and Heating Equipment Dealers' Association.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Sec. 1. Incorporation and purposes. Louis P. Bail, Edward P. Hacker, H. Kezar Libby, Allen Morrell, George H. Musk, Gard Twaddle, Jr., George M. Wingate and all persons who may hereafter become associated with them, are hereby created a corporation by the name of the Maine Oil and Heating Equipment Dealers' Association, for the following purposes: to improve relationships between dealers in the oil and heating equipment industry and relationships between the members of the industry and the public; to improve the standards of installation and servicing of heating equipment; to promote the sale of fuel oil and to promote and foster the best interests of the consumer; to seek methods of promoting sound economic practices among its members; to inculcate just and equitable principles among its members; to acquire, possess and disseminate useful information for its members, and generally to promote the welfare of its members and the prosperity of the oil and heating equipment industry in the State of Maine, and by that name shall have power to sue and be sued, and possess all the rights and privileges of corporations under the laws of this State.

Sec. 2. Officers and by-laws. Said corporation may elect such officers as it may deem necessary, and may adopt such constitution, by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, as it may deem proper for the management of its affairs, including the admission, government and expulsion of members.

Sec. 3. First meeting. The first meeting of the corporation may be called by any one of the persons named in this act, by mailing, postage prepaid, notice of the time and place of such meeting to each of the persons so named, at least one week prior to such meeting.

Sec. 4. Recording certificate; fees. Before commencing business the aforesaid corporation shall make and record a certificate of incorporation in accordance with the provisions of section 4 of chapter 54 of the revised statutes of 1954, within the time limit therein expressed, and pay the fees as required by said section 4.
