AN ACT Relating to Discontinuance of Vaughan Bridge and Approaches Thereto as a Public Way.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

Vaughan bridge and approaches thereto discontinued as a public way. All that part of the highway in Cumberland County between the northeasterly and southwesterly sides of Fore River as was traveled via Vaughan bridge, so called, is hereby discontinued as a public way. All those parts of said highway on the northeasterly and southwesterly sides of Fore River used as approaches to the said Vaughan bridge are hereby discontinued as a public way or ways, said discontinuance on the northeasterly side extending 300 feet along said highway approach or public way northeasterly from the stone abutment marking the end of the riprap work located on the Portland side of Fore River and said discontinuance on the southwesterly side extending 115.9 feet along said highway approach or public way southwesterly from the corresponding abutment located on the South Portland side of Fore River.
