Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 60, § 314, amended. The 2nd paragraph of section 314 of chapter 60 of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'For each license issued to a foreign insurance company, or foreign surety company, or credit insurance or title insurance company, or to a foreign fraternal beneficiary association to do business in this State, and for each renewal thereof, a fee of ~~$30~~ $50. For each certificate of qualification of a domestic insurance company to act under its charter and for each annual renewal thereof, a fee of ~~$30~~ $50, except that domestic fire insurance companies writing on the assessment plan only are exempt from this requirement. For certificate of authority to make reciprocal contracts of indemnity under the provisions of sections 236 to 243, inclusive, and every renewal thereof, a fee of ~~$30~~ $50. For each annual statement filed by any insurance company, domestic or foreign, a fee of ~~$30~~ $50, except that domestic mutual fire insurance companies writing on the assessment plan only are exempt from this requirement. All said fees shall be used solely to defray administrative charges and salaries for examinations required by law, for examining and auditing filed annual statements and for the carrying out of any rate regulation imposed by the laws of this State. Every insurance company shall also pay all traveling expenses incurred by order of the Commissioner in making the examination required by law, except ~~however~~ that a domestic mutual insurance company doing its direct business entirely within the State shall not be required to pay any of the expenses of the examination;'
