STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-SEVEN

AN ACT Relating to Right of Appeal Under Labor and Industry Chapter.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 30, § 164, additional. Chapter 30 of the revised statutes is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof a new section to be numbered 164, to read as follows:

‘Appeals.

Sec. 164. Appeals. Any order by a board created and established under this chapter, or any rule, regulation, determination or declaration formulated by such Superior Court, in term time or vacation, by an appeal taken within 30 days after the effective date of such rule, regulation, determination, or declaration to the Superior Court, held in or for the county in which the operation is located, at the instance of any party in interest and aggrieved by said rule, regulation, determination or declaration. Such appeal shall be prosecuted by petition. Upon the filing thereof the Court in term time or a Justice thereof in vacation shall order notice thereof. Upon the evidence and after hearing, which shall be held not less than 7 days after notice thereof, the Court or a Justice thereof may modify, affirm or reverse the rule, regulation, determination or declaration in whole or in part in accordance with law and the weight of the evidence. The Court or a Justice thereof shall, upon hearing, determine whether the filing of the appeal shall operate as a stay of any rule, regulation, determination or declaration pending the final determination of the appeal, and may impose such terms and conditions as may be deemed proper.’
