The ~~joint board~~ county commissioners shall order a time and place for a hearing to be held in the county where the property lies and shall cause 30 days' notice to be given of the said time and place by posting copies of the petition with their order thereon in one conspicuous place in each town in which any such property lies, by publishing said petition and order in some newspaper, if any, in said county and by giving written notice by registered mail to the holders of record titles to the land to be sent to said owner's place of abode, if known, otherwise to the abode or address as set forth in said records.'

Sec. 2. R. S., c. 23, § 21, amended. The last paragraph of section 21 of chapter 23 of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'The ~~joint board~~ county commissioners shall meet at the time and place appointed, and view the property and hear the interested parties present. They shall then determine the damages. The ~~board~~ county commissioners shall notify the interested parties by registered mail of ~~the~~ their final decision ~~of the board~~. Verbal notice shall not be considered as official or binding.'

Sec. 3. R. S., c. 23, § 22, amended. Section 22 of chapter 23 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 1 of chapter 424 of the public laws of 1955, is hereby further amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 22. Proceedings on damage claims. Whenever the Commission shall change the grade of any state or state aid highway as provided in this chapter to the injury of an owner of adjoining land, he may within 6 months after completion of the work according to the records of the Commission apply to the Commission in writing for a determination and assessment of his damages; ~~and~~ ~~if~~. If the Commission is unable to settle such damages at what it deems a reasonable amount, the Commission or interested parties may apply to the ~~joint board~~ county commissioners in writing for a determination and assessment of the damages. Sec. 4. R. S., c. 23, § 23, amended. Section 23 of chapter 23 of the Revised Statutes is hereby amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 23. Appeals from decisions of the county commissioners. Any ~~person~~ party aggrieved by said decision of the ~~joint board~~ county commissioners may appeal therefrom to the Superior Court in the county where the land is situated within 30 days after the date of the receipt of the notice of award. The clerk shall certify the final judgment of the Court to the Commission, which shall enter the same of record, and order the damages therein recovered to be paid by the Treasurer of State. The committee of reference shall be allowed a reasonable compensation for their services to be fixed by the Court upon the presentation of their report and paid by the Treasurer of State upon the certificate of the clerk of courts.'
