STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-NINE

AN ACT Relating to Retirement of Members of Portland Police and Fire Departments not under Retirement System.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1927, c. 75, § 1-B, amended. Section 1-B of chapter 75 of the private and special laws of 1927, as enacted by chapter 165 of the private and special laws of 1957, is amended to read as follows:

'Sec. 1-B. Retirement benefits for those not under State Retirement System. Any member of the City of Portland police and fire department, who is not a member of the Maine State Retirement System and who has creditable service of at least 25 years as a policeman or fireman, who ~~have~~ has reached the age of 55 years, ~~may~~ shall be retired at $\frac{1}{2}$ of his average final compensation; provided such retirement is requested by the member. If any such member should become eligible under the provisions of any other system, as a result of prior service and membership service, to a retirement allowance in excess of $\frac{1}{2}$ of his average final compensation, he shall be entitled to the higher retirement allowance.'
