STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-NINE

AN ACT Relating to Exemptions Under Boiler and Unfired Steam Pressure Vessels Law.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 30, § 78, amended. Section 78 of chapter 30 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 6 of chapter 272 of the public laws of 1957, is further amended to read as follows:

‘Sec. 78. Exemptions. ~~The provisions of sections~~ Sections 64 to 84 shall not apply to boilers which are under federal control; or those under the control of the Public Utilities Commission; or to boilers used solely for propelling motor road vehicles; or to boilers of steam fire engines brought into the State for temporary use in times of emergency to check conflagrations; or to boilers used for agricultural purposes only; or to steam heating boilers which carry pressures not exceeding 15 pounds per square inch and which are constructed and installed in accordance with the rules adopted by the Board of Boiler Rules, except such boilers located in schoolhouses or boilers owned by municipalities which carry pressures not exceeding 15 pounds per square inch, constructed and installed in accordance with the rules adopted by the Board of Boiler Rules; or boilers located in buildings, public or private, used in whole or in part for churches, recreation, commercial places of amusement, auditoriums, hotels and other places catering to the public where more than 10 persons may be accommodated at any one time, or hospitals and institutions having normal accommodations for the care or retention of more than 10 persons or to miniature boilers exempt by the provisions of section 76; or to hot water heating and hot water supply boilers, except those located in schoolhouses or owned by municipalities or in buildings, public or private, used in whole or in part for churches, recreation, commercial places of amusement, auditoriums, hotels and other places catering to the public where more than 10 persons may be accommodated at any one time, or hospitals and institutions having normal accommodations for the care or retention of more than 10 persons, which are constructed and installed in accordance with the rules adopted by the Board of Boiler Rules.'
