STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-NINE

AN ACT Relating to Vehicle Entering Stop Intersection.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows :

R. S., c. 22, § 89, amended. Section 89 of chapter 22 of the Revised Statutes, as amended by section 5 of chapter 308 of the public laws of 1957, is further amended by repealing the first 2 paragraphs and inserting in place thereof the following :

‘Except when directed to proceed by a police officer or traffic control signal, every driver of a vehicle approaching a through way or a stop intersection indicated by a stop sign shall stop, and after having stopped shall yield the right of way to any vehicle which has entered the intersection from another highway or which is approaching so closely on said highway as to constitute an immediate hazard, but said driver having so yielded may proceed and the drivers of all other vehicles approaching the intersection shall yield the right of way to the vehicle so proceeding.

Every vehicle approaching on a through way to point of its intersection with a way other than a through way so as to arrive as such point at approximately the same instant as a vehicle approaching on such other way shall, as against such other vehicle, have the right of way.’
