STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-NINE

AN ACT Relating to Powers of Board of Trustees of Maine Maritime Academy.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

P. & S. L., 1941, c. 37, § 2, amended. The first paragraph of section 2 of chapter 37 of the private and special laws of 1941 is amended to read as follows:

'Said trustees shall provide and maintain a nautical school for the instruction of students in the science and practice of navigation and in practical seamanship, steam, diesel and electrical engineering, radio and radio communication, and of ship operation, ship construction and ship and boat design, provide books, stationery, apparatus and other supplies and equipment needed in work thereof. The board may appoint and remove necessary instructors and other employees, determine their compensation, fix the terms upon which students shall be received and instructed therein and discharged therefrom, and make all regulations convenient or necessary for the management of said school and provide from time to time for actual sea experience for its students.

The board may borrow money, make and issue negotiable notes, bonds and other evidences of indebtedness or obligations of the school for capital improvements and secure the payments of such obligations or any part thereof by pledge of any part of the revenue of the school, and do all other lawful things necessary and incidental to the foregoing powers.

Bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness issued under this section shall not be deemed to constitute a debt of the State of Maine, nor a pledge of the credit of the State, but shall be payable solely from funds of the school.'
