STATE OF MAINE

IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD NINETEEN HUNDRED
FIFTY-NINE

AN ACT Relating to Injuries Under Workmen's Compensation Act.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Maine, as follows:

R. S., c. 31, § 13, amended. The first paragraph of section 13 of chapter 31 of the Revised Statutes is amended to read as follows:

'In cases of injuries included in the following schedule ~~the incapacity in each such case shall be deemed to be total for the period specified; and after such specified period, if there be a total or partial incapacity for work resulting from the injury, the employee shall receive compensation while such total or partial incapacity continues under the provisions of sections 11 and 12 respectively. The specific periods during which compensation for presumed total incapacity is to be paid because of the injuries hereinafter specified shall be as follows; which are partial in character but permanent in quality, compensation shall be paid on the basis of total disability in accordance with the schedule, which specific compensation shall be in addition to any recovery of compensation for total or partial disability as provided by sections 11 and 12 respectively.~~
