CHAPTER XIII.

AN ACT to incorporate the town of Williamsburg.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That the Plantation of Williamsburg, being township number six, in the eighth range, in the county of Penobscot, as the same was surveyed by Samuel Weston, in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and bounded south by the town of Sebec, east by the plantation of Brownville, north by township number six in the ninth range, and west by township number seven in the eighth range, with the inhabitants thereof, be and hereby are incorporated into a town by the name of Williamsburg; and the inhabitants of said town are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities, which the inhabitants of towns within this State do or may by law enjoy.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That Moses Greenleaf, Esq. is hereby empowered to issue his warrant to some inhabitant of said town directing him to notify the inhabitants thereof to meet at such time and place, as he shall appoint, to choose such officers as other towns are empowered to choose at their annual town meetings.

June 21, 1820—Approved,

WILLIAM KING.

CHAPTER XIV.

AN ACT to incorporate the Eastport Mechanic Association.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That Daniel Garland, Charles Peavy, Darius Olmstead, Ethel Olmstead, John Swett, Thomas Haycock, and Joshua Veazie, and their associates, together with such others as may become subscribers to the same Institution, in the manner hereinafter provided, be and they are hereby incorporated into a Society by the name of the Eastport Mechanic Association; and by that name shall be a Corporation forever; with power to have a common seal; to make contracts relative to the objects of their Institution; to sue and be sued; to establish by-laws and orders for the regulation of the said Society, and the preservation and application of the funds thereof: Provided, The same be not repugnant to the Constitution or laws of this State; to take, hold, and possess any estate, real or personal, by subscription, gift, grant, purchase, devise or otherwise;
