PORTLAND :

PRINTED BY FRANCIS DOUGLAS, PRINTER TO THE STATE.

1820.

Sentence may be executed in a neighboring county.

of this act, such Court may order the sentence to be executed in any neighboring county in which there may be a gaol or house of correction, suited to that purpose, and every such convict shall be confined and kept at work in the gaol or house of correction, to which he shall be so committed in like manner in all respects as if the sentence had been passed in the county in which the gaol or house of correction is situated.

Repeal of former act.

SECT. 7. Be it further enacted, That an act relating to the punishment of convicts, who may be sentenced to solitary imprisonment and confinement to hard labor, adopted by the Constitution of this State be and the same is hereby repealed.

June 27, 1820—Approved,

WILLIAM KING.

CHAPTER. XXIII.

AN ACT for the further relief of poor Prisoners committed by Execution for debt.

If judgment creditor is dead.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That whenever any poor prisoner is or shall be committed by Execution for debt in any of the Prisons of this State, and the judgment creditor is or shall be dead, and two months shall have elapsed since the death of such judgment creditor, without any administration being granted upon his estate, the notice required by law in such case shall be served upon the Attorney of record of such judgment creditor in the suit whereon the judgment was rendered, upon which the execution whereby such debtor stands so committed was issued; and such notice being served upon such Attorney in the same manner and within the same time as notice is to be served in other cases by law, shall be good and effectual to all intents and purposes, as the same would be if duly served upon the judgment creditor if living.

Notices served on the Attorney of record.

June 27, 1820.—Approved.

WILLIAM KING.

CHAPTER XXIV.

AN ACT to incorporate Thomas Cutts and others for the purpose of manufacturing Iron and Steel in the town of Saco.
