CHAPTER XCVI.

An Act for the further relief of poor Prisoners committed by Execution for debt.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That whenever any poor prisoner is or shall be committed by execution for debt in any of the prisons of this State, and the judgment creditor is or shall be dead, and two months shall have elapsed since the death of such judgment creditor, without any administration being granted upon his estate, the notice required by law in such case shall be served upon the attorney of record of such judgment creditor in the suit whereon the judgment was rendered, upon which the execution whereby such debtor stands so committed was issued; and such notice being served upon such attorney in the same manner and within the same time as notice is to be served in other cases by law, shall be good and effectual to all intents and purposes, as the same would be if duly served upon the judgment creditor if living.

If Judgment creditor is dead,

notice served on the attorney of record;

[Approved June 27, 1820.]

CHAPTER XCVII.

An Act to direct the Time and Manner of exhibiting the Accounts of County Treasurers, and the Estimates for County Taxes, and for other purposes.

SEC. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled That the respective Courts of Sessions in the several counties of this State, at the terms of the said Courts holden next before the first day of January annually, shall make up and prepare estimates of taxes for all county charges, equal at least to defray the expenses which have accrued or may probably accrue for one year ensuing the said first day of January, including the building and repairing of gaols and Court houses, and their appertences, with the debts due and owed by the said counties respectively; and the said estimates being so made and approved by the said Courts, shall be recorded by the respective Clerks in a book for that purpose to be provided
