CHAPTER XLII.

An Act for the better securing, and rendering more effectual, Grants and Donations to Pious and Charitable uses.

Preamble.

WHEREAS many grants and donations have heretofore been made by sundry well disposed persons, in and by such expressions and terms as plainly show it was the intent and expectation of such grantors and donors, that their several grants and donations should take effect, so as that the estates granted should go in succession; but doubts have arisen in what cases such donations and grants may operate so as to go in succession, for ascertaining whereof:

Deacons of Protestant churches, not episcopal, and church wardens of episcopal churches to be bodies corporate and take lands, &c. in succession &c.

SEC. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in Legislature assembled, That the deacons of all the several Protestant churches, not being episcopal churches, and the church wardens of the several episcopal churches, are, and shall be deemed so far bodies corporate, as to take in succession all grants and donations, whether real or personal made either to their several churches, the poor of their churches, or to them and their successors, and to sue
