CHAPTER XLIII.

AN ACT to cede to the United States of America the Jurisdiction of a part of the beach at the mouth of Kennebunk River.

Bounds of the tract ceded.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That there be and hereby is ceded to the United States of America, the jurisdiction of a certain trail or parcel of beach lying in Kennebunk, in the State of Maine, bounded as follows: beginning at a black sunken ledge on the beach near the mouth of Kennebunk river; thence running a westerly course on the beach twenty rods; thence in a southwesterly direction to the western part of the fishing rocks, one thousand feet; thence easterly to the channel on the bar, thence up the channel of the river to the bounds first mentioned for the purpose of erecting a Pier to accommodate the navigation of the said Kennebunk river: being the same beach that has been purchased for the said United States of Samuel Gooch, by deed duly recorded.

Concurrent jurisdiction reserved to the State.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over the said beach and pier when erected, so far as that all civil and criminal processes, issued under the authority of this State or any officer thereof, may be executed on any part of the said granted premises or in any building that may be erected thereon in the same way and manner as if the jurisdiction had not been granted as aforesaid.

[This Act passed February 19, 1821.]

CHAPTER XLIV.

AN ACT to authorise the sale of the Ministerial and School lands in the town of Greenwood.

Reserved lands appropriated.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in Legislature assembled, That the lands reserved in the town of Greenwood for public uses, be and they hereby are appropriated as follows, viz. one third part thereof for the first settled minister in said town, his heirs and assigns in fee simple forever; one third part thereof to the support of the Gospel Ministry; and the other third part thereof for the support of public schools in said town forever.

One third to be set off in severally to the first minister.

SECT. 2. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Selectmen and town Treasurer of said town of Greenwood, for the time being, or a majority of them, to cause said lands to be divided, as soon as conveniently may be, and one
